Delhi is the seat of power. A natural magnet for the meeting industry. Where communication and dialogue create opportunities and incentives. Where connections made at conferences lead to life affirming positive developments and progress.

Through the year Delhi plays the ideal host for professionals. Business magnets creating impetus and opportunities for us. From environment and renewable energy experts to the farmer and designers. From an enterprising entrepreneur to a corporate leader.

With an enviable array of B&Bs, Inns and Five Star Hotels, Delhi is blessed with the finest in cuisine and hospitality establishments. There is a remarkable mix of expo-marts, convention centres, cultural intersections, auditoriums and arena size facilities across Delhi.
