New Delhi, dated 6th day of December 1975.
The Board shall provide a common seal for the purpose of the Company and shall have power from time to time to destroy the same and substitute a new seal in lieu thereof.

The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal.

The seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of at least two persons including a Director, Manager or Secretary authorized by the Board in this behalf, from time to time who shall sign every instrument to which the seal is affixed provided that in respect of issue of share certificates, Rules of the Companies (Issue of Share certificates) Rules 1960 shall apply.

The Company may exercise the powers conferred by section 50 of the Act with regard to having an Official seal for use abroad and such power shall vest in the Board.

The declaration of the Board as to the amount of net profit of the Company shall be conclusive.

The Company in general meeting may declare dividend, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

The Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the Company.

The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the company such sums as it thinks proper as reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be application for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies, or for equalizing dividends and pending such application, may at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investment (other than shares in the Company) as the board may, from time to time, think fit.

The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may think expedient not to divide without setting them aside as a reserve.

Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect where of the dividend is paid.

No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this Articles as paid on the shares.

All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionate to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

The Company in general meeting may decide that any dividend payable to the member may be set off against any call payable by the members or any calls in arrear by the member.
70. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles the Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money's, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares in the Company.

71. (1) Any dividends, interest or other money's payable in respect of shares may be paid in cash or by cheque, warrant or postal order sent through post or by money order direct to the registered address of holder or, in the case of joint holder who is first named on the Register of Members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.

(2) Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.

(3) The Company shall not be responsible for the loss of any cheque, warrant or postal orders sent by post or by money-order in respect of dividends, whether by request or otherwise, at the registered address or the address communicated to the Company before hand by the member or for any dividend lost to the member or person entitled thereto by the forged endorsement of any cheque or warrant or the fraudulent recovery thereof by any other means.

72. Any one of the two or more joint holders of a share may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other money payable in respect of such share.

73. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

33. (1) The Chairman may, and if so directed by the meeting shall adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place.

(2) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

(3) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

(4) Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of a adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
18. (1) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall be liable to pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as the Board may determine from time to time.

(2) The liability to pay interest due on the calls shall continue even after forfeiture of the shares.

(3) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

19. (1) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium shall for purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

(2) In the event of non-payment of such sums, all the relevant provisions of these articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

20. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, in the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the company against any member or his legal representative for the recovery of any call or other money claimed to be due to the company in respect of any shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member in respect of whose shares the money is sought to be recovered appears on the Register of Members as the holder of the shares in respect of which such money is sought to be recovered, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute-book, and that the notice of such call was duly given in pursuance of these provisions, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Director who made such call or any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

21. The Board:

(a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and

(b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may, until the same would, for such advance become presently payable, pay interest at such rates as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

22. No transfer of any shares in the capital of the Company shall be made or registered without the previous sanction of the Board who may, without assigning any reason whatsoever decline to give such sanction and shall so decline in the case of a transfer the registration of which involves a contravention of article 3 hereof. The Board may at their discretion also suspend the registration of transfer of shares during fourteen days immediately preceding the Annual General Meeting in each year. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:

(a) A fee of Rs. 2/- (Rupees two) is paid to the Company in respect thereof except where otherwise determined by the Board to the Contrary and

(b) The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the share to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferee or to make the transfer.

If the Board refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer deed duly executed was lodged with the Company, notify the transferee of the refusal.
