Metro: Speedy, Efficient, Trendy, Clean, and Comfortable Contemporar

Dhaka's Metro: With You by Your Side: 6 AM to 9 PM Daily

Atmosphere on Central Forecourt: Jhongilapah Metro Bus Terminus

Suggested Session:

Rashid Ahmed (President, Bangladesh): Emboldening the new Bangladesh: Enhancing the landscape of the city of Dhaka and the nation at large. He discussed the vision of the Bangladesh government to transform the city of Dhaka into a modern, sustainable, and livable urban environment.

Sanjida Mohsin (Member of Parliament): The role of urban planning in achieving sustainable development. She highlighted the importance of integrating green spaces and pedestrian-friendly spaces into urban planning to promote a healthy and active lifestyle.

National Centre of the Arts which lies in close proximity and is easily accessible from the metro station.

Suggested Session:

Purnell Chakravorty: Dhaka Metro: A Masterplan for Sustainable Urban Development. He discussed the Masterplan for Sustainable Urban Development, which aims to create a sustainable and livable city for Dhakans. It focuses on improving public transport, green spaces, and urban infrastructure.

Suggested Session:

Pabitra Banerjee: The Tourism perspective: Creating a tourist-friendly city. He discussed the importance of creating a tourism-friendly city to attract tourists and boost the local economy. He highlighted the need for improvements in public transport, cleanliness, and cultural programs to attract tourists.

Central Cottage Industries Emporium: Down from the walls of India's handloom tradition, this pavement shows a few famous months; handloom fashion that is a tradition of centuries. The exhibition is open from 10 AM to 7 PM daily. A visit to this emporium is a must, as it is a treasure trove of traditional handloom fabrics from all over India.

Suggested Session:

Chhavni Chakravorty: Dhaka Metro: A Masterplan for Sustainable Urban Development. She discussed the Masterplan for Sustainable Urban Development, which aims to create a sustainable and livable city for Dhakans. It focuses on improving public transport, green spaces, and urban infrastructure.

Suggested Session:

Nawazuddin Siddiqui (Actor): His journey from a struggling actor to a recognized name in Bollywood. He shared his experiences in the film industry, the challenges he faced, and how he overcame them to reach success.

Central Cottage Industries Emporium: Down from the walls of India's handloom tradition, this pavement shows a few famous months; handloom fashion that is a tradition of centuries. The exhibition is open from 10 AM to 7 PM daily. A visit to this emporium is a must, as it is a treasure trove of traditional handloom fabrics from all over India.