ASEAN delegates experience Indian culture at Dilli Haat

Dilli Haat lit up to welcome delegates of ASEAN-India Commemorative Summit on 26th January, 2018. Government of Delhi along with Delhi Tourism organized a special trip for the delegates to visit Dilli Haat, INA and experience the Indian culture at its best. Seasonal flowers, handmade rangolis and colorful decorations lit up the entrance to welcome the delegates.

The regional crafts of India captured the interest of delegates who were seen engaging with the craftsman and local retailers. They further explored the beautifully decorated HAAT and enjoyed the pleasant Delhi weather. Special cultural programmes were held to highlight the rich history of India and its rooted connection with other ASEAN countries.

The evening ended on a wonderful note as the delegates got closer to India's culture and got a chance to enjoy a relaxing evening during the summit.
